

ROCKYARD DUALS

January 5, 2019

This was the eighth annual Rockyard Duals. Council Rock North had wins over Ridley and Wood in the first and second rounds respectively then lost to Spring-Ford in the 3rd round. Neshaminy lost to Downingtown West in their opener then beat William Tennent and Methacton. North would meet Neshaminy in the finals round for third or fourth place. The Redskins outscored the Indians 40-30 relegating North to a fourth place finish.

Indians with wins;

106	Anthony Burke	3 - 1
113	Kyle Hauserman	4 - 0
120	Danny Fitzgerald	1 - 3
126	Luke Lucerne	3 - 1
145	Cameron Robinson	4 - 0
152	Sammy Hayes	3 - 1
160	Dillon Sheehy	4 - 0
170	Brendon Hardy	1 - 3
182	Blake Silber	1 - 3
285	Max Harar	2 - 2

Besides going undefeated for the day, Cameron Robinson was awarded the trophy for the most pins in the least amount of time. Last year Cameron was selected the tournament Outstanding Wrestler. The Duals are very good to Cameron.

The Rockyard Duals are held each year in memory of Jack Callender Jr.. Below is a copy of the tribute to Jack that appears on the Wall of Champions in North's wrestling room. Jack's sons, Jack III and Tyler, who both wrestled for North, were on hand to present the award at this year's duals.

THE HARD WORK WALL OF CHAMPIONS

THIS WALL IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF

Jack King Callender, Jr.

1959 - 2011

Jack Callender served as president of the Council Rock North Wrestling Boosters with enthusiasm and dedication from 2004 until 2010. Jack loved all sports but, more importantly, he loved working with young people. He spent a great deal of time helping various sports programs throughout the Council Rock School District. Jack lived by the motto "HARD WORK". Through his example, he taught scores of young people that it takes "HARD WORK" to succeed, not only in sports, but also in life. He will be greatly missed, but his battle cry, "We're in a war here," will forever ring from the stands here at Council Rock North.
