

Neshaminy January 16, 2019

Neshaminy and Council Rock North have had a long and storied rivalry dating back to before the CRNorth/South split. There were times when it would be standing room only at a Neshaminy/Council Rock match. Sadly those days are apparently gone. There were only a scattering of fans in the stands at Wednesday night's match that saw Neshaminy hand Council Rock North a resounding defeat.

Neshaminy took the 220 pound match via a fall followed by North's Max Harar win by forfeit to even the team score at six apiece. The Redskins added to their total with a win at 106 prior to Kyle Hauserman's 0:28 pin over Eric Gross at 113. Neshaminy rattled off the next four in a row from, 120 to 138, to run the team score to lopsided 12-30. Luke Lucerne who normally wrestles 120 or 126 was out of the lineup with an injury but says he will be ready for the Escape the Rock on Saturday. Cameron Robinson (145) pinned Luke Gross in 1:05 to bring his season total to 17-3 and his career record to 90-21. Only ten to go to the illusive 100 win club.

The 152 pound match was touted to be the match of the night with North's Sammy Hayes and Neshaminy's Jackson Erb going head to head. Sammy had lost to Erb at the Rock Yard Duals eleven days prior and was looking to avenge that loss. It was a great match ending in a tie after regulation. In the closing seconds of the first overtime period Sammy suffered a season ending ankle injury and had to default to Erb. A sad turn of events for the junior mid weight.

Dillon Sheehy outscored Rory Rienzi 3-1 to add to North's score. At the end of the second period Dillon was called for stalling when he presumably pushed Rienzi out of bound. Council Rock North's bench was called for unsportsmanlike conduct and penalized a team point for questioning the call. That set the team score at 20-36.

Neshaminy took the balance of the matches with a pair of pins and a major decision to finish the scoring at 20-52. Not one of the Indians best performances.

Come Saturday and Sunday January 19th and 20th North will be competing at the Escape the Rock Tournament at Council Rock South. Wrestling is scheduled to start at 10:00am Saturday. Fifty-three teams are scheduled to participate. If you want to see some of the best wrestling in Pennsylvania here is your opportunity weather permitting.
