

DECEMBER.
13&14, 2019

This is the Indians ninth trip to Penn Manor High School for the Comet Classic Tournament. Council Rock North's best finish prior to this year was a 3rd place back in 2016. Their worst finish came in 2015 when they finished in 22nd place. This year North took it all with 4 championships, a 2nd, a 3rd, and a 4th place to out pacing 2nd place Bethlehem Liberty by 38 points to take 1st place out of the 28 team field.

Last year at 113lbs. Kyle Hauserman lost 1-2 in the finals. That 2nd place finish earned him a number one seed at 120 this year. From there he worked his way back to the championship finals with wins over Luzzi from Unionville, Upper Perk's Matt Martin and King from West Chester Rustin. In the finals Kyle wrestled New Oxford's Andrew Christie. He outscored Christie 4-0 to take the 120lb. tournament championship. An interesting note; in the 4 matches on his way to the championship, Kyle only had 2 points scored against him all day.

Seeing as Luke Lucerne was a three time returning Comet Classic Tournament Champ it seemed a little strange that he was seeded second at 132lbs. to some kid from West Virginia. That kid must be something special. Luke started from that second seed with a pair of pins over Milkowich from Upper Perk and Grassel from host Penn Manor. Luke moved into the semi finals with a 7-3 win over Central York's Mason Myers and guess what, there was that kid from West Virginia. The seeding committee had it right, they just had it backwards. Hardy was tough..... for 2 periods. Luke outscored him in the third to ice his 4th consecutive Penn Manor Comet Classic Championship. Now that's special!!

By virtue of his 2nd place finish at States last year, Cameron Robinson was seeded 1st in the 152 pound weight class in this year's PMCC. Cameron showed that he deserved that seeding, pinning all of his opponents on his way to the final. It started with a 0:44 fall over Parkland's Luke Yacilla followed by a 0:42 pin over Charlie Leidig from Manheim Twp.. In the semi finals it took Cameron 3:03 to pin Garden Spot's Gunner Gehr. In the finals he wrestled the second seed, Tanner Schaller from Central York. Cameron took the 152lb. championship with a 3:22 fall over Schaller. What an outstanding tournament performance. Outstanding enough for Cameron to be awarded the tournament OW. Last Saturday, December 7th, at the Bear Duals, Cameron had 4 pins in 5 duals. The 5th was a 9-4 win over Petrucelli from O. J. Roberts. For that effort Cameron was awarded the Bear Duals OW. That's two Outstanding Wrestler awards in 7 days. How many times has that happened?

Dillon Sheehy has wrestled in the Penn Manor Comet Classic for the last four years. As a Freshman he went 2-2. As a Sophomore Dillon was 1-2. Last year, as a Junior, he lost 7-9 in Sudden Victory in the finals and had to settle for second place. This year Dillon was seeded second in the 160 pound weight class. In his opener he outscored John Miller from Exeter 11-4. In the quarters Dillon pinned Unionville's Sam Elsen in 4 minutes flat. In the semis he outscored Penn Manor's Colt Barley 7-2. In the finals he finally got that PMCC 160 pound Championship with a 6-3 decision win over Susquehannock's Colby Romjue. A long uphill battle but with persistence and hard work you can conquer mountains.

You could have captured the PMCC tournament championship with four straight wins. Lose your first or second match and down to the wrestle backs you go. That's the route Sammy Hayes (145lbs.) had to take. After he opened with a pair of wins over Jacob Hartranft from Wilson West Lawn and Upper Perk's Zach Rozanski, Sammy lost his quarter finals match to Liberty's Jason Rezac and to the wrestle backs he went. In the Consolation 4th Round Sammy pinned Susquehannock's Blake Romjue. In Round #5 he outscored Jeremiah Smith from Central York 3-0. In the Consolation Semi Finals Sammy decisioned William Brock from Salesianum 5-2 to move to the finals for 3rd place. He allowed Garden Spot's Joshua Groff just one point as he captured third place with a decisive 9-1 win. So unlike his team mates above who went 4-0 for the day Sammy had to wrestle seven matches to get his award. Good for his win-loss record but surely he'd much prefer 4-0 and 1st place.

Like Sammy, 195lb. Blake Silber lost early on in the day. After a 6-5 win over Bryce Houser from Cedar Crest in his opener Blake lost and headed for the consolations. In consolation Round #4 he wrestled Pedro Gomez from Penn Manor. Blake pinned Gomez in 1:43 and moved to the Consolation 5th Round. There he took on Dustin Tocci from Bethlehem Liberty and score another fall in 0:55 to advance to the consolation semi finals. Here Blake scored his 3rd consecutive pin. This one over Henry Hartpence-Campos from East Pennsboro in 4:50 moving him into the consolation finals for 3rd place. Against Lampeter-Strasburg's Parker Owens Blake lost a 3-4 squeaker to finish the tournament in 4th place. Last year Blake went two and out at the PMCC so a 4th place finish shows he has put in the hard work it takes if you want to improve. The experience Blake gained this weekend has to be a big confidence builder for the balance of the season.

At the PMCC last year Max Harar (285) went 1-2 for the tournament and was eliminated. This year he showed much improvement starting with a 0:13 pin over Angel Vasquez from Governor Mifflin. In the quarter finals Max scored an 11-4 decision in his match with Garden Spot's Charles Martin to advance to the semis. He kept up his winning ways with another decision win over the wrestler from Lampeter-Strasburg. In the final Max met the number two seed Robert Unruh from Exeter. He lost that one to finish 2nd overall in the tournament. A great finish for the junior heavy weight. This weekend Max added 3 wins to his impressive 2019-20 season record which now stands at 9-1. If he keeps up the hard work, who knows what that record might be by the end of the season.

Other Results:

106 - Dylan Siverd	0 - 2
113 - Anthony Burke	0 - 2
138 - Larry Tsai	0 - 2
170 - Brendon Hardy	2 - 2
220 - Roni Elbarouki	1 - 2

Next Wednesday, North will travel to Harry S. Truman. The Tigers are coming off an impressive 59-24 win over Tennent. Truman can always be tough so the Indians better get up for this one. JV at 5:30 followed by the varsity at 7:00. Come out and help cheer on North.